HUGH WHITE'S HEALTH

The chief argument used by opponents against Ex-Governor Hugh White's candidacy for governor is this: "He is too old. He could not stand the strain of another term in the Governor's office."

All of which is piffle, devoid of any semblance of truth. Hugh White, the most outstanding man who has held the Governor's office in fifty years, is still mentally alert and physically strong.

When the campaign gets underway, he will be found on the stump each day showing no strain from the daily routine of travel and speechmaking.

If Hugh White was not in the prime of physical condition, he would never have entered this race for the Governorship.

If Hugh White had not been advised by competent physicians, after a careful check-up, and undergoing the most rigorous physical examination, he would have denied the urgent demand of friends that he enter the race.

Hugh White is today the superior of any candidate in the race in mental ability.

He has what all the others lack—experience in the office which will be a most valuable asset to the taxpayers of Mississippi.

In the face of these irrefutable facts, it is but natural that opponents would make an early start with their mudslinging. The stronger the man, the more vigorous the attacks against him.

Hugh White's official and personal record stands like the Rock of Gibraltar—impregnable against any form of human attack.

He has contributed more to the growth and upbuilding of Mississippi during the past 20 years than any man in the country.

He is a man with a genius for leadership and he has used that genius in a marvelous way to bring new industries to Mississippi.

He is a Christian gentleman whose private life is above reproach.

He has not entered the race for Governor because he needs a job or seeks more public honors. His candidacy is prompted by a desire to continue and to broaden the great work he launched during his former term as Governor.

He will, if elected, bring hundreds of new industries to our state, to convert our raw materials into finished products and provide employment for many thousands of workers.

The physical disorder with which Hugh White was stricken in 1933 has completely disappeared—not one symptom left—according to the best doctors in Mississippi and New Orleans and they surely ought to know. He passed all tests with flying colors. He has not had one day of illness since recovering from that attack.

Jacksals can, and often do, stand off and bark at a lion. That's what the critics of Hugh White are now doing when they loudly express hypocritical concern over his physical condition. They really hope he will be unable to make an active campaign because they know he is the most formidable candidate for the Governorship.

In these troubled days, there is everywhere urgent need for capable leadership in public affairs. Hugh White is the outstanding man for ability, experience, statesmanship, and a complete realization of what is needed to keep Mississippi going forward. Flyblowing his candidacy with silly rumors about the state of his health is just about the climax of absurdity and will have a boomerang effect on opponents who resort to such dirty tactics.—Jackson Daily News, Sunday, May 13.

Yacht Club News

By: Mrs. F. J. Trastour

The Inter-Club Team races between PCYC and BWYC were held this week at BWYC. The PCYC team won both trophies. The final result of the Expert Skipper Races, consisting of a series of six races were PCYC Team 157-34 points, BWYC 130-34 points. The Skipperette Race, consisting of a series of six races was PCYC 55 1/2 points, BWYC 44 points.

This coming week, PCYC will host a Gulf Yachting Association Regatta at their club. Skippers representing BWYC are Norman Renshaw, H. A. Thompson, J. E. Erwin with Glen Cowan as an alternate skipper. Our skipperette representative will be Miss June Breath. Because of the Regatta at PCYC there are no fish class yacht races scheduled for this weekend.

The Club will be rather active this week, with a dance given by the Civil Air Patrol Thursday night and a dance and supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Lidell Caffrey for the graduating class of Bay High, Friday night. Of course, we will have our usual Saturday night dinner.

BWYC will have a team representing it at the regatta at the Buccaneer Yacht Club of Mobile, Alabama, May 26 and 27. Skippers representing the Club are Arthur Wynne, Louis and John Koerner.

Sailing lessons will continue each week at the Club—the first one started last week with Cliff Prados in charge. The juniors feel that they are really learning something under his tutelage. If you have not already registered for classes, be sure and get your application immediately.

The office of Board of Supervisor is the most important in our County form of government. Your Board of Supervisor has complete control of the Roads and Bridges, Seawall and Road Protection, the Fiscal Affairs of the County, and, of most importance, the member of the Board of Supervisors of each beat select the persons from their respective beats who are to serve as jurors in the Circuit Court of your County.

Under our judiciary system, trial by jury is the most important phase of our American Way of Life. To have our causes tried by fair and impartial jurors is one of the rights guaranteed to us under our constitution. I promise, if elected, that I shall place in the jury box of my beat, men of the highest character and of unquestioned integrity, who, if you have any matter before the Circuit Court of Hancock County, whether it be civil or criminal, will give you a fair and impartial verdict.

The responsibilities of the Members of the Board are great, and the man you select as your Supervisor should be able to shoulder them. The duties of all other officers are mostly ministerial, but not so with the office of Supervisor. It is incumbent upon them to pass judgment, and in them is vested the power to decide issues affecting the welfare of your beat and your county.

Thirty-one years of service as Deputy Clerk and as Clerk of Courts of Hancock County, gives me a store of experience and knowledge which will enable me to render a service to the people of Beat Five, if they should see fit to elect me as their Supervisor.

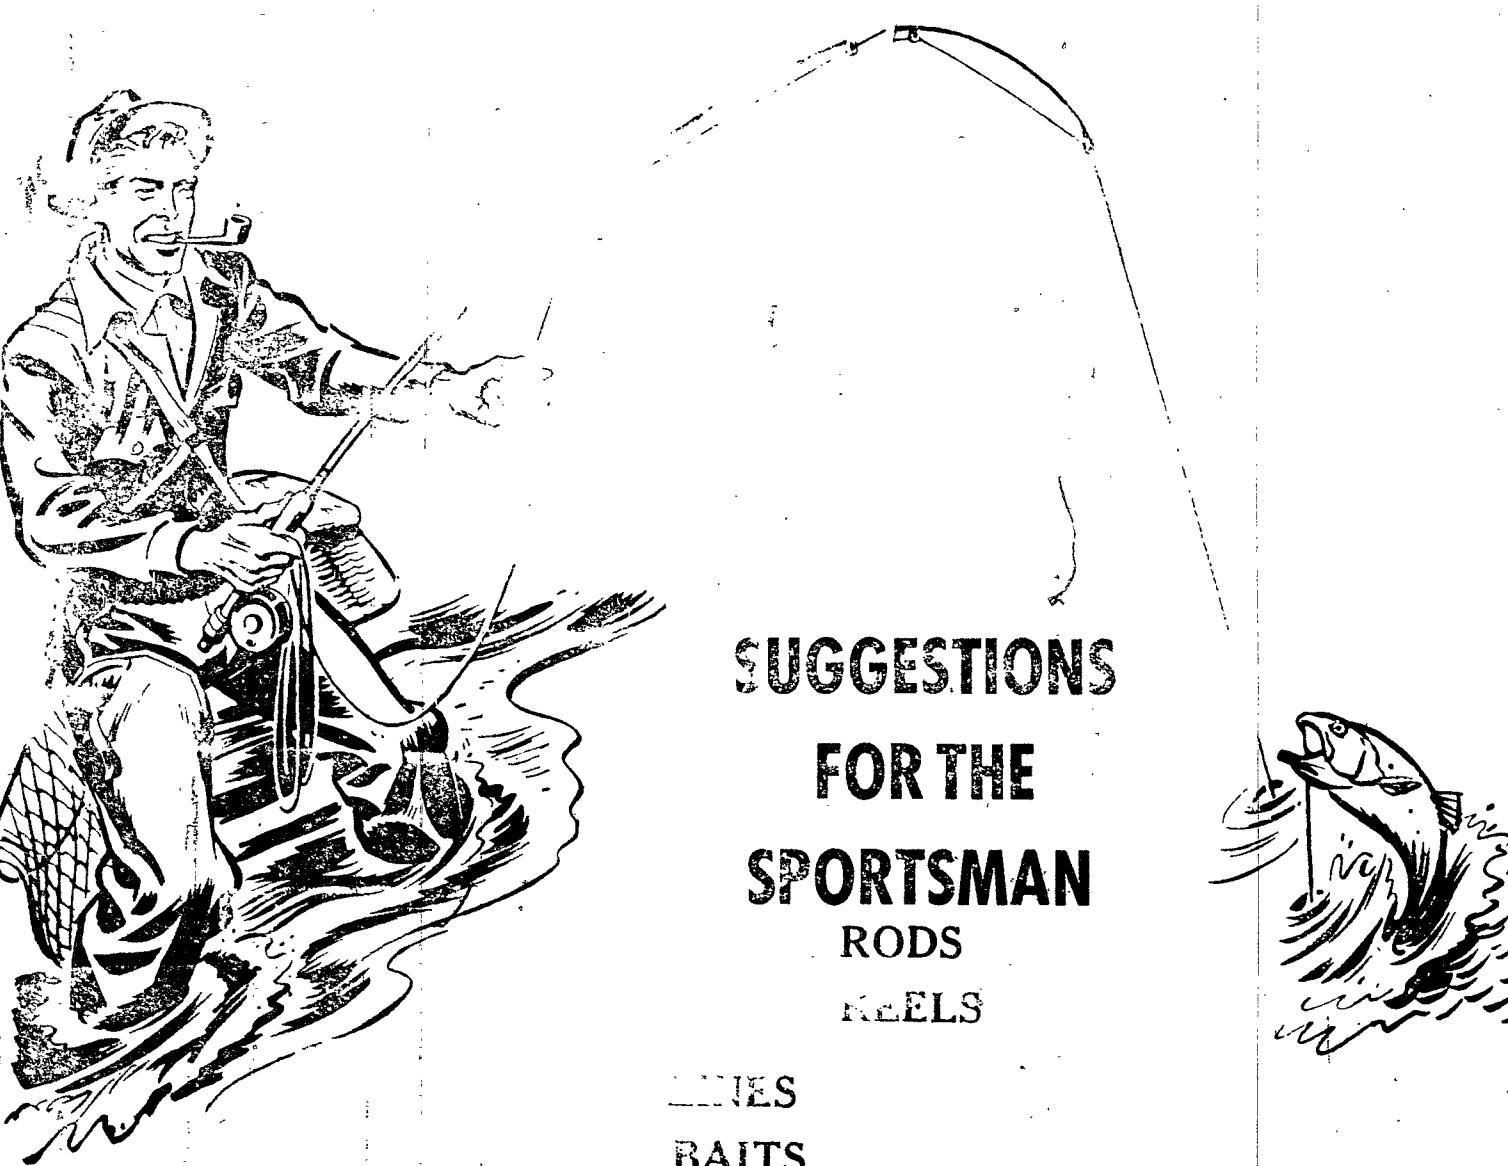

In my formal announcement, I gave facts and figures, which clearly show what I propose to do, if elected, and I shall exert every effort to carry this program to a definite conclusion.

I earnestly solicit your support and influence; and in return, if elected, I shall render you a progressive, competent and faithful administration.

R. W. MAY ANNOUNCES FOR STATE TAX COLLECTOR

Brandon, Miss.—Robert W. May, State treasurer, announced here today that he has qualified as a candidate for state tax collector and that he has forwarded a check for $100 to the State Democratic Executive Committee as required by law.

He will actively campaign for the office of tax collector and reminds the voters that he will take full charge of the collection of the taxes rather than depend wholly upon deputies to handle the task.

A veteran of World War II, Mr. May has served as state treasurer since 1948, making an excellent record. On May 1, he reported more than $40,000,000 in the state treasury, something of a record high in funds available.

Mr. May is a native of this city, born here in 1909, the son of the late Lewis S. and Anna Wadell May. He attended Brandon High School and Mississippi State College.

Upon leaving college, he spent a year with the state highway department and subsequently worked with the U. S. Forest Service until January, 1936. At that time, he entered the automobile business as agent for a popular car in this city. In May, 1942, he entered the armed forces, serving in Europe with the Third Army from 1944 to 1946.

Returning, he took a position in the treasurer's office and was elected state treasurer in 1947, taking office January 1, 1948. He is a brother of Walter H. May, Meridian; Lewis S. May, Jr., Mrs. R. D. Morrow and Mrs. W. B. Collier, all of Brandon.

CIVIC CLUB ELECTIONS

The Women's Civic League of Pass Christian met Tuesday evening at the Miramar hotel.

A general discussion was held and a motion made and passed that, in view of the splendid work done and accomplishments achieved during the past year, all club officers be re-elected unanimously. They are: Mrs. H. W. Fitzpatrick, president; Miss Hazel Woods, vice president; Mrs. Parnell McKay, secretary; and Miss E. Jane Lang, treasurer.

Following the election of officers plans were formulated for the Friday, May 18th program at which the league will honor the graduating classes of Pass Christian high school and St. Joseph's Catholic School. The party will begin at 8:00 p. m.

It is the desire of the league to make this entertaining of the senior classes of the two local schools an annual affair.

In beginning her second term in office, Mrs. Fitzpatrick, president, has extended an invitation to all women of Pass Christian community and civic affairs to join the league, which will meet on the first and third Tuesdays of each month at the Miramar hotel. Anyone wishing to join may attend the next meeting of the group, Tuesday night, June 3, at the hotel.

The Rotary Club was entertained Tuesday noon with an outstanding program when Dr. Willis G. Clark, program chairman for the week, presented an outline on an autobiography of Jefferson Davis. He stated that although Davis was born in Kentucky he was an adopted Mississippian, who lived until the age of 81 and who died in New Orleans, La.

Rand Jones officiated at the meeting, which was attended by Mr. Ben Hille, Guy St. Louis Rotarian and Wilton Bradley, high school Rotarian of St. Joseph's Catholic school.

With the beginning of the racing season interest definitely picked up. We had a full calendar during the past thirty days, and more is scheduled for the next. Here's what happened:

There have been 13 non-selling events 4 Sunday night suppers; 1 Sunday lunch, when the New Orleans Yacht Club members were our guests for the day, with 43 attending; 2 Women's Auxiliary luncheons with 105 attending; 2 men's poker nights; 2 Junior nights with 48 attending; 1 square dance with 48 attending; and 1 dance with 51 on hand.

Sailing: April 21 and 22—Team races with Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. The Pass. Our skippers were ahead on the skippers were behind at the end of this first set. Two perpetual trophies, one for skippers, one for skipperettes, have been inaugurated for team races each year between B.W. Y. C. and P. C. Y. C.

April 29—A 3-race series of team sailing with the New Orleans Yacht Club, which we just barely won. They presented the Club with a beautiful plaque commemorating their first interclub competition.

May 5 and 6 our team went to the opening GYC Regatta at Fairhope, Alabama. Didn't do. Continued on back page section 2

False Rumors

This last year a number of false rumors about St. Augustine's Seminary have come to our attention. There was one rumor that we had donated a large piece of wooded property to the State of Mississippi so that the new bridge could be built 2000 feet north of the present site. Connected with this rumor was another to the effect that we intended to sell property on both sides of this new highway at a very tall price and thus reap a small fortune. Then there was a rumor that we intended to purchase the Reed Hotel, and, in fact, had just about concluded the deal.

What are the facts? We never even thought of donating any of our wooded property to the State of Mississippi for a new highway. As while back we were asked to donate some footage on Route 90 to allow the State to widen the present highway. This we consented to do under certain conditions. When the present site of the bridge was discarded by the Commissioners we were again approached and asked to quote a price for our wooded property to provide land for the new highway. At the time we said we were unable to do this until a more definite plan would be submitted as to where and how much land would be required. We are not anxious to sell. Our wooded property was not bought for a real estate advantage but to give us privacy, for study and recreation, and that privacy we are desirous to preserve as much as possible.

If we must sell part of our wooded property for the highway, then we may eventually sell the property on the side of the highway farthest from our present buildings. That property would then no longer serve our purpose of privacy to the same extent. But we do not expect to gain a fortune thereby any more than any other property owner.

Never was there any intention on our part to purchase Reed Hotel. Even if cash were available for that, we would much rather construct another building on our present grounds. But as sorely as we need rooms, we also sorely need the ready cash. We are at a loss to explain how these false rumors arose. We are more at a loss to explain how so many of our friends have given credence to these false rumors.

Hold Flower Show

The first annual flower show of the Pass Christian Garden Club was held Thursday, May 10, at Trinity Parish house with over 200 people attending. Decoration of the room was limited to the stage where a realistic and effective patio scene was laid. A hedge of pittosporum surrounded the three walls of the stage with trees of pine and blooming magnolia rising above the hedge. In the center was a fountain and small pond effect complete with running water and water lilies. Framing this was a white trellis with blooming pink climbing roses twined in it. The flower beds on either side were filled with colorful potted calla and regal lilies, geraniums, petunias, caladium, hydrangea, ageratum, and unusual foliage plants, donated by Danielson's and Lary's nurseries. Visitors who have attended the International Flower Shows at Madison Square Gardens commented that this decoration was comparable to anything which has been done there.

The tea table was set with two large silver punch bowls, large silver trays and triple candelabra. The green and white color scheme was carried out with a large tray of magnolias as a centerpiece and garlands of gardenias leading to the punch bowls. Experiment Station Begins Research On Seed Processing

SHORT COURSE FOR COMMERCIAL SEEDMEN TO MARK OPENING OF NEW SEED LABORATORY AT STATE COLLEGE

State College, Miss.—Seed production and processing, enterprises which could be developed to add millions of dollars to Mississippi farm income, are being added to the list of projects studied by the Mississippi Agricultural Experiment Station.

Completion of a new seed processing laboratory (this month marks the beginning of extensive research on this subject, Dr. Frank J. Welch, dean of the School of Agriculture and director of the Mississippi Experiment Station, has announced. A short course for seedmen at State College, May 28 to June 7, will officially open the new laboratory. Commercial processors from Mississippi and neighboring states are expected to enroll in the course. Instructors will be Mississippi State College faculty members and representatives of commercial concerns dealing in processing equipment.

The course of research being conducted in the seed processing laboratory includes studies in the chemical and physical treatment of seed, the operation and adaptation of the many machines used in seed cleaning, processing, drying, and the storage, packing and marketing of seed. Economic studies are applied throughout to determine cost factors applying to specific processes and to overall plant operation. Other extensive research is being conducted by the Mississippi State College in seed production and methods of harvesting.

The laboratory is equipped with the most modern machinery available for cleaning, drying, grading, and storing seed and is arranged for efficient processing operation.

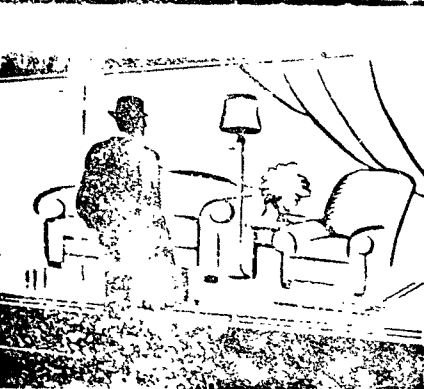

While Mississippi-produced cotton seed is of world renown and the state produces its own requirements of soybean, oat and hybrid corn seed, many of the remaining seed so important to Mississippi agriculture are bought from out-of-state sources. Most of these can be grown in the state but the difficulty has been in harvesting, processing and marketing. Research men will now seek answers to these problems.

Norton Haas, Jr. Elected Newman Club Prexy

State College, Miss.—Norton Haas, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Haas, Sr., of Bay St. Louis, was recently elected president of the Mississippi State College Newman Club.

Haas, a sophomore in the School of Engineering, will also serve as vice-president of Theta Kappa Phi, social fraternity at Mississippi State.

Both clubs will officially begin with the opening of the fall semester at Mississippi State College in September.

Businessmen Of Hancock County Invited To Atlanta Meeting To Hear Controlled Materials Plan Explained

An urgent call to any businessman in Hancock County may be directly or indirectly affected by the "controlled materials plan," of the National Production Authority, U. S. Department of Commerce, to meet in Atlanta May 21 to hear the plan explained is being sent out by Merrill C. Lofton, Commerce Department regional director in Atlanta.

The "controlled materials plan" is being applied by NPA to three of the nation's basic metals, steel, aluminum and copper, effective July 1. Its operation will affect the manufacture and fabrication of many products containing those metals, and the purpose of the Atlanta meeting is to make it possible for all phases of the plan to be explained and questions concerning its operation answered.

The meeting, open to all businessmen in Atlanta, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, South Carolina and Tennessee concerned with the new plan, will be held in Exhibit Hall Number 1 of the Atlanta Municipal Auditorium, beginning at 10 o'clock.

Short talks will be made by representatives of the National Production Authority and Department of Defense who are versed in operation of the plan. After the plan is fully explained the meeting will be thrown open to a question-and-answer session.

Similar meetings are being held simultaneously in 19 other cities in the nation in a broad educational program designed to acquaint as many businessmen as possible with the plan and how it operates.

During the month of May, NPA workers will dispatch to some 50,000 manufacturers located over the country on which they will be expected to indicate their plans for the minimum inventory cover after July 1, the effective date of the plan.

The "Controlled Plan" is part of the overall procedure of the National Production Authority to conserve the nation's raw materials in short supply for the national program rearmament.

Weekly News Letter

by
W. F. BOND, Commissioner
State Department Public Welfare

The old-fashioned poor farm or paupers home maintained for many years by County Boards of Supervisors in the respective counties is rapidly becoming a thing of the past. In fact, there are only about one-half as many such institutions in the state now as were in existence ten years ago. Old age assistance grants have enabled hundreds of former inmates to leave these homes and live under much better circumstances with relatives. No inmate of these homes may be given an assistance grant because it is against the Federal law to give such assistance to anyone living in a public institution of any kind. One county, however, (Tallahatchie) has worked out an agreement with the State Board turning the former poor farm into a home for needy persons in general, including the aged, which has saved the county a good deal of money at no greater expense to the State. In a few counties, these institutions are still nothing to be proud of and should either be abolished or improved.

Factory to Make Prosperity

Mississippi's 3,000 manufacturing plants are turning out an alphabetical list of products including apparel, chemicals, furniture, glass and paper, but one thing all of them are making is—more prosperity for everyone in our State!

In 1950, the products of our mills and factories sold for approximately 700 million dollars, or 4 times as much as the value of all goods produced by the plants operating in our State during 1939!

Progress like that calls for more telephones! During the 5 post-war years beginning with 1946, new telephone facilities installed by Southern Bell in Mississippi cost over 45 million dollars, or nearly twice the value of all our property in the State after our first 65 years in business here.

This great construction program supplied Mississippi homes and business houses with an additional 269 telephones, bringing the total Southern Bell subscribers in the State to approximately 223,000 just before the ice-storm. And the work of expanding and improving Mississippi's telephone system continues as rapidly as conditions permit.

IT TAKES MANY SOURCES OF SUPPLY

More than two hundred fields in Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Oklahoma supply the gas that moves through United's pipe lines. That's why we are continually seeking out and developing new sources of supply—to be sure there's natural gas available for new homes and industries built along the United Gas system this year—and in the years to come.

Southern Bell To Increase Salaries

Pay increases most of which will range from $3 to $6 a week, were offered today by the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company for its non-supervisory employees.

G. D. Garner, vice president for personnel, said the proposal, which conforms to the Government's wage stabilization program, would add approximately $10,000,000 a year to the company's labor costs and that the money to pay these other increased costs would have to be obtained through increase in telephone rates.

In addition to the wage offer, the company also proposed that the present agreement working conditions be extended for one year.

The offer was made in the course of negotiations now going on between the company and the Communications Workers of America CIO. More than 45,000 employees in nine states served by Southern Bell are represented by the union.

According to the company's proposal, the increased rates of pay would take effect on the first pay roll period after expiration of the present contract between the union and the company on next June 4.

"The wage increase is offered in addition to the regularly scheduled progression increase which our employees receive until they reach the top rate for their job," he said. "Increases in telephone rates are still lagging behind increases in telephone wages."

Including wage offers, the rate increases granted since 1949 are falling short of about $20,000,000 annually of covering the cost of wage increases granted over that same period.

Mr. Garner described the wage increase offer as one that is fair to employees and customers alike. He said the company must be guided in the negotiations by the interests of telephone users as well as of telephone employees.

A statement made by Mr. Garner follows:

"In today's bargaining session the company presented an offer of wage increases most of which range from $3 to $6 a week. The increases proposed are in addition to the regularly scheduled progression increase, which telephone employees receive until they reach top rate for their jobs. The offer amounts to about $10,000,000 a year in additional labor costs to Southern Bell. It is made with full realization that such large extra costs cannot be absorbed without an increase in the telephone rates paid by our customers. Yet we are convinced the offer is justified."

"Since the last general wage increase to Southern Bell employees, there has been a rise in the cost of living and there has been a corresponding rise in pay scales. A survey just completed covering 4,000 firms employing 750,000 persons shows there has been a general upward movement of wages in the South. It is clear that Southern Bell employees are entitled to an increase.

"It is Southern Bell's policy to pay wage rates in line with those paid other workers in the community having similar skills. But it is not just a matter of policy. If we failed to pay good wages enough to attract and keep high-type employees, we would be unable to provide service of the quality that the public has come to expect. In the public interest, Southern Bell has to pay good wages."

The wage increase offer we have made is one that is fair to employees and customers alike. In the long run, it is in the interest of the public to have the interests of telephone users as well as of telephone workers. We are convinced our responsibility to the public is served."

Servicemen Are Covered By Free Insurance

Every person serving in the Armed Forces at this time is now automatically covered by insurance of $10,000. This protection is given under the provisions of a law signed by the President on April 23, 1951.

No premiums are paid by the serviceman on this new insurance. The law stipulates that it is without cost to the person. In case of the death of the insured in service, or within 120 days after release or discharge, the insurance is paid in 120 monthly installments. Payment is made to the person or persons named by the serviceman as beneficiary. The beneficiary may be the wife, child, parent, brother or sister. No other person or persons may receive this insurance. Settlement is at the rate of $2.90 a month for a period of 120 months on $10,000. No other forms of payment are permitted under the law on this new free insurance.

Those persons in service who already have government insurance will be permitted to drop this if they prefer to be covered instead by the new free protection. They will have the option of reinstating lapsed government insurance within 120 days after discharge.

No person in service will be protected by government insurance of any type in excess of $10,000. If the serviceman has government insurance of any type on which he is paying premiums and such insurance is not as much as $10,000, free insurance will protect him for the difference between that already in force and the maximum of $10,000.

This new act is retroactive to June 27, 1950. Where men died in service after June 27, 1950 and before the date of the President's approval of the law, it will be considered that $10,000 insurance was in force. Settlement will be made to the next of kin, Robert H. DeKay, Commissioner, said.

Gulf has drilled 453 wells in search of oil and gas in Mississippi. In any state that is quite a covey of wells, and the cost of this exploration and drilling to Gulf has been in excess of $75 million.

Gulf's experience in Mississippi since it took its first lease in Hinds County in 1917—34 years ago, reveals the faith and confidence required in the development of mineral resources such as oil and gas.

There were long years of scouting, drilling and spending before the first well came in.

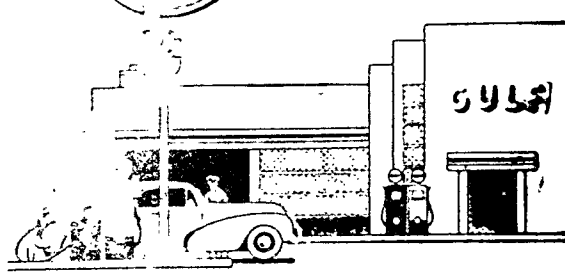

It was 13 years after 1917—in 1930—before Gulf brought in its first producing gas well, the E. P. Rainey No. 1 in Rankin County. And it was 13 more long years—in 1943—before Gulf brought in its first producing oil well, the No. 1 in Wayne County.

Patience, faith and confidence plus the expenditure of $75 million—has been Gulf's contribution to the sound development of Mississippi's oil and gas resources—a development that has added substantially to the economic progress of Mississippi.

Gulf's plans call for a continued program of exploration and drilling in Mississippi as Gulf joins with all forward-looking Mississippians in the building of a more prosperous Mississippi, so that every citizen may enjoy even greater advantages and opportunities.

Historic Camellias Grow On Coast

Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab is the author of an article entitled "Old Camellias of the Gulf Coast," appearing in the American Camellia Yearbook for 1950.

In this article, Mrs. Mogabgab tells the history of this lovely flower that is found in abundance in this area. According to the author, the blossoms were always known as camellias, and it is only in the past 10 or 15 years that the name "Japanea" has become familiarly associated with the camellia. It was some time before they rightfully became known as "camellia japanea."

In the front garden of Art Fitch's home and tourist court, a few yards from the highway in Ocean Springs, the author said, a 32-foot Sarah Frost is growing. This tree is the largest on the Coast so far as is known. The owner claims that it is approximately 50 years of age.

In Memorial Park, situated in the heart of Pass Christian, a healthy 25-year old plant stands over 20 feet high. It is the offspring of an old historical tree which stood in the front yard of the late Mr. McCutcheon, a well-known resident of the town. The tree was cut down by the town when the park was laid out.

Another tree, said to be the oldest in the town, is a 20-foot tree in the front yard of the late Mr. McCutcheon. The tree was cut down by the town when the park was laid out.

WAVELAND NEWS

By Mrs. H. K. Holderith

The Parents Club gave a shower in honor of Mrs. Willets Hoyer, the former Jacqueline Whitney, and teacher of the fifth and sixth grades in the school lunchroom.

The decorations represented a rainbow with a pot of gold, in which all gifts were placed, at the end.

Little Aggie Bourgeois, wearing an evening dress of white or gandy trimmed with ruffles, assisted the honoree in opening her gifts.

A buffet lunch was served. The guest list included: Mesdames Betty Rose, Edna Yarbrough, Edith Ruhl, Walter F. Turcotte, Sidney Bourgeois, Leon Ladner, Travis Eozeman, Zelma C. Stelz, Nola Bourgeois, H. K. Holderith, G. W. Tucker, Ruth Meilleur, P. J. Bourgeois, Ducre Bourgeois, Wallace Bourgeois, Vital Bourgeois, Mary Moran, Chester Bourgeois, Marie Boudages, Garfield Ladner, Fre. Bourgeois, Mammie Hartfield, Paul Henley, Inez Gustafson, Randolph Bourgeois, Paul Kimbrell, Sophie Herlihy, Gladys Noonan, Ed Gipson, Roger Boudages, Lee Ferrel, Lloyd Bourgeois, J. Tanet, W. A. Walsdorf, J. D. Bourgeois, Grace Ann Boudages, Jack Whitney and Misses Cecile Turcotte, Mary Margaret Turcotte and Mary Perkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schwander and his wife and two of their children who died in infancy. At the foot of Captain Koch's grave is a 32-foot Sarah Frost camellia. According to Miss Nettie, this camellia was planted over her mother's grave by her father in 1885. For fear it would grow too large, in 1894 she and her brothers moved it to where it now stands.

Miss Nettie has never let anyone cut more than shortstemmed flowers from her camellias. They have never been sprayed and are fertilized only by the leaves from the surrounding oak trees.

In the Camellia Yearbook, there are more than 90 members listed in the back of the book. They are representative of almost every state in the United States. Listed for Bay St. Louis are Rev. Father Christian Baker, S. V. D., Mrs. Mogabgab, James L. Crump, A. I. Picard and Dr. Ernest C. Samuel.

Miss Nettie's father was a sea captain who came to this country in 1840. About 75 years ago he planted the first camellia tree to be planted in the town. It was brought from a nursery situated at Pine Hills, a few miles north of Pass Christian; the Pine Hills Hotel was later built on the spot where this nursery was located.

This camellia has grown and flourished through the years, and has reached a height of about 40 feet and a diameter of 32 feet. It is growing under a mammoth oak tree. Its topmost branches reach around and above a huge limb of the oak. It bears semi-double flowers in profusion.

A few hundred feet from the house and on the Koch property is the family burial grounds. Here are many small marble crosses bearing the names of the deceased members of the family. A little apart and under the dense shade from oak and magnolia trees are the graves of Captain Koch.

Without any thought of preaching a sermon, I would suggest to the groups or individuals, that considered this HOAX so serious and some of whom were publicly abusive about me, that it might be well, if they would take counsel with their inner selves and I hope that, they would come from their deliberation with a new theory as to just what it takes to make a good citizen in a community and I will give you my definition of a good citizen, free, except for the obligation that you will in the future try to be one.

A good citizen WILL NOT place personal power or gain above the welfare of the community in which he lives. He WILL NOT permit personal animosity for an individual or faction to cause him to retaliate at the expense of the entire community.

He WILL so conduct himself, that he will be free to enter discussions on any propositions that may make for the betterment of the community, rather than to admit, that for personal reasons, his policy of necessity is a HANDS OFF one.

He will take an active and constructive part in local organizations whose purposes are to promote HIS community and which need HIS assistance to survive.
